

7 December 2010

REVOLUTIONISING FINANCIAL SERVICES TRAINING

The Skills Institute has recently formed an exciting partnership with SConsulting to provide online financial services qualifications.

SConsulting is one of Tasmania's leading financial services training providers using the latest in e-learning technology to deliver nationally recognised qualifications in an online environment.

Participants are given control over their own study plan, making it easier to balance work, life and study commitments.

SConsulting provides comprehensive study support including mentoring services and full time phone and email support.

CEO of SConsulting, Simon Offor, believes e-learning is revolutionising the way employers are training their staff.

"As more and more employers come to understand the benefits of e-learning I believe we will see a widespread adoption of more interactive and flexible forms of learning," Mr Offor said.

"Our online qualifications and compliance training provides employers with a cost effective training alternative that reduces time spent on administration and provides enhanced support services".

Qualifications on offer include:

- Certificate III in Financial Services
- Certificate IV in Financial Services

Tier 1 and Tier 2 Compliance Solutions

Tier 2 Interactive Online Accreditation Solution provides the skills required to comply with ASIC RG 146. Participants who complete the Tier 2 Accreditation will receive a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment containing the ASIC compliance units.

SConsulting and The Skills Institute are currently developing an online Diploma.

For more information on SConsulting's e-learning services, please call (03) 6226 6258 or visit www.sconsulting.com.au for more information.

ENDS

For more information contact: Paula Catchpole, 0407 532 103